The Labor Laws.

Hakky February 9th, 1882.

Edyron Garkyre:—In the late articles on the Labor Question, I have met noticed any allusion to the fact that our Labor Laws are a medification of the Indenture Statutes and decisions of the State of New York. I quote below in opposite columns the laws of New York and our own showing that in protection of the servant we have gone ing that in protection of the servant we have gone much farther than the freedom loving Empire State:

Report of Marshal Parks on the Portuguese Troubles. Hosonure, Feb. 13, 1832.

W. N. ARDSTRONO, ESQ., ATTORNEY GENERAL. My DEAR Sta: In accordance with your instruc-tion of the 30th of January, I left Honolulu for Massi on the 21st of January, and on the 2d of February in company with Father Leonore proseeded to Hamakuapoko, to the plantation of W. H. TAYLOR, Pres't. JOSEPH MGORE, Sup which Mr. C. H. Alexander is Manager, under Mr. S. T. Alexander, one of the proprietors of said plantation, to enquire into the cause of the trouble on said plantation on the 28th of January last. I inforded every facility to Pather Leonore to examine all the parties in conposition with the affair of the 28th of January, and leading herewith a copy of all the leatimony taken at that time, which occupied for the first trial on January 18th, they are pared

On my arrival there I found that two of the Huwalian lawyers had been empaced to defend the prisonners, and as at the former trul they had no attorneys to defend them, I thought it best not to attorneys to defend them. I thought it best not to take their plea of guilty and allow them to plead saw guilty, as the attorneys for the prisoners had required him.
